

Wedding Band Matchmaker — Copy & Image Corrections

Drop-in changes for the landing page: copy rewrites, testimonials (now real, with headshots), and two image picks.

1. Subheader

Was: The quiz that helps you discover the perfect style of band to suit your wedding vibe, and make it an unforgettable night.

Now: The quiz that helps you discover the perfect style of band to suit your wedding, your vibe, and your guests.

2. Opening copy

“fifth Instagram reel”

Was: After the fifth Instagram reel, they all blur into one.

Now: After the fifth showreel, they all blur into one.

The “day you don't get to run twice” line

Was: It's meant to be exciting, but somewhere around the twentieth open tab it starts to feel like a task rather than a treat. And because it's your wedding, a day you don't get to run twice, every choice starts to carry weight.

Now: It's meant to be exciting, but somewhere around the twentieth open tab it starts to all feel too overwhelming. This is the day you and your guests will remember year after year, and the band is the part they'll talk about most. You only get one chance to get it right.

3. “How it works”

Step 1 — remove the throwaway line

Cut: No music theory required, just what you're picturing.

Step 2 — shorter, and clearer that it's the style not the band

Was: We calculate a genuine match score and match you with the band whose style fits what you told us, ceremony and drinks through to the last dance.

Now: We calculate your match score and show you the style of band that fits what you told us, from ceremony and drinks through to the last dance.

Step 3 — fix “see the band in action”

Was: If you want to see the band in action, you have the opportunity to book a call with us at the end. No pressure. We'll check availability and take it from there.

Now: If you'd like to see which Boujee Music band fits the style you've matched with, you can book a quick call with us at the end. No pressure. We'll check availability and take it from there.

4. “What's waiting for you”

Exclusivity line

Was: Boujee's bands aren't available anywhere else.

Now: Boujee Music's bands aren't available anywhere else.

Built-from-scratch line

Was: Every one has been built from scratch, from the setlists to the arrangements, and is exclusive to Boujee.

Now: Each one has been built from scratch, from the set lists to the arrangements and the choreography to the outfits, and is exclusive to Boujee.

The second paragraph — full rewrite

Was: Your match isn't just a band name. It's a proper look at the style that suits you: the acoustic roaming set that works table to table during drinks, the swing and jazz that make dinner feel effortless, the show band that keeps the dancefloor full until the last song. You'll see why it fits, hear it, and know exactly what your evening could feel like.

Now: Your match isn't just a band name. It's the style that suits your day and your guests, whether that's a roaming acoustic set breaking the ice during drinks, stylish jazz musicians to carry the meal, or the show band that brings the party and keeps the dance floor full to the last song. You'll see it, hear it, and know what your day could feel like.

5. Testimonials — replace with real ones + headshots

The placeholder names/quotes are replaced with real reviews from our file. It's not necessary to name the wedding date or venue, but each one should include a headshot of the couple to make it feel real and personal. Headshot links are next to each quote.

Hero quote (top of page)

Now: "This band made our wedding - I am biased but best wedding I've ever been to." — Stephanie & David

Headshot for Stephanie & David

"Couples who found their match" block (three quotes)

Now: "From the first song to the last, the dance floor was full." — Amber & Dan

Headshot for Amber & Dan

Now: "The best decision we made, and so easy to have only one supplier to deal with for it all." — Dawn & Ashley

Headshot for Dawn & Ashley

Now: "You kept me, a self-confessed non-dancer, on the dance floor all night!" — Georgia & Jade

Headshot for Georgia & Jade

All four are real, from different couples, and cover high-energy / dancefloor / full-day / converted sceptic — genuine range that mirrors what the quiz does.

6. Images — fill the gap (no singers or crowd interaction currently)

The sax-player image is good, but there are no shots of singers or crowd interaction on the page. Two picks from the hero-landscape folder:

Crowd / vocalist interaction — the priority fix

"Two vocalists back to back on the dance floor, arm raised, under a pink wash" (Uptown Showdown). Singers on the floor, not on a stage — this is the not-a-stand-and-play-band point in one image.

Emotional payoff with the band

"Couple smiling mid first dance with the full brass band behind, in orange haze" (Uptown Showdown). Shows the band and the human moment together — good for the "what your evening could feel like" section.
